WE NOMINATE

William Bradford Craig, one of this country's most perceptive educational administrators and a ranking authority in the increasingly important, and complex, field of financial assistance for college undergraduates, who twice in the past several days has made news in his areas of specialization. The January 6th issue of "The Saturday Evening Post" highlighted his comprehensive article, "You Can Afford College," while over the weekend he jetted to Africa to help with the final screening of the vanguard of some 300 Africans who will enter American colleges next September.

A realist, under whose direction some 2,000 Princeton undergraduates have paid their own way through the University during the past eight years, the 46-year old Director of Princeton's Bureau of Student Aid has performed a signal public service through the medium of "The SatEvePost." With a calm, almost detached, point of view, and without benefit of the over-statements all too characteristic of slick-magazine articles, he reviews the scholarship opportunities available through America's 2,000-plus institutions of higher education, advises parents to "be tough on yourselves" by overestimating college costs, and concludes: "so no matter how you reason, don't assume that you can't afford a college education for your child."

The three-week safari to East Africa, together with representatives of seven other colleges and universities, accentuates Craig's and Princeton's mounting concern for, and involvement in, world affairs. Under the terms of the rapidly expanding African Scholarship Program of American Universities, initiated two years ago with 21 students at 21 schools, Craig and his associates apply highly selective principles of admission and offer opportunities which guarantee the Africans' financial well-being on American campuses. For instance, between now and February 1st, Craig and his fellow travelers will offer four-year scholarships to 100-125 students selected from 900 who, in turn, have previously been screened from nearly 3,000 applicants in 11 emerging nations.

As Director of the Bureau of Student Aid and Secretary of the Scholarship Committee, posts to which he was appointed in 1953 after three years in the admissions field, Craig wrestles with two sets of responsibilities: (1) providing the means that enable candidates in need to enter Princeton and (2) assisting these men throughout their undergraduate careers in solving their financial problems. And scholarships in the 1960's are "big business!" Some 1,800 of the applicants for admission with the Class of 1965 requested aid, while the University's overall aid program in 1960-61, including grants, loans and jobs, came to nearly $1,600,000.

A native of Short Hills, N. J., a graduate of the Kent School (Conn.) where he did his first teaching prior to World War II, and a hockey-playing member of Princeton 1938, Craig compiled a brilliant combat record in what the college-going generation now calls "the old man's war." Serving some 40 months in the far reaches of the Pacific, he was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross as well as the Purple Heart and Bronze Star Medals. Upon his return to civilian life he carried forward graduate studies at Harvard and Colorado College, receiving his Master's Degree in Education at the latter in 1950, the year he was called to Princeton.

For combining his challenging profession with such time-consuming "outside" assignments as the vice-presidency of West Windsor Township's School Board; for arguing with admirable eloquence that college education in the frenetic modern world "produces priceless benefits in terms of individual satisfaction and maturity"; for dedicated service to others; he is the Editors' nominee for

WESTMINSTER SAYS "NO"

To Board of Education. The 18 acres of Westminster Choir College land which the Borough Board of Education would like to buy, must be retained by the College for its own development.

Dr. Noel Sargent, acting president of the College, made the announcement this week, and also released copies of 1959 development plans which include provisions for new dormitories, a dining hall, a chapel, faculty and married student housing, a gymnasium, an auditorium, classroom buildings and rehearsal halls and playing fields to be built on the land sought by the Board of Education. Plans for a new library building were announced last month.

Dr. Sargent commented on the possibility that the Board of Education might seek to acquire the property by condemnation.

If this occurs, Dr. Sargent said, "Westminster Choir College would necessarily oppose such action, and in the event that the Borough School Board should be successful, Westminster will seek to recover not only the price offered by the Borough but also damages due to impairment of the Choir College development plans."

Cites Precedent. The acting president also expressed the opinion that, if a tax-supported school board could forcibly obtain undeveloped property belonging to Westminster Choir College, it could also take property belonging to other private educational institutions, such as Princeton University, Princeton Theological Seminary and the Institue for Advanced Study.

"Such a step by the Borough School Board could set a precedent which could affect every private school, college and university in the community," said Dr. Sargent.

Replying to Dr. Sargent, Graham Rohrer, president of the Borough Board of Education, said:

"The Board of Education has had no direct communication from the Westminster Choir College since November 21, 1961, when Dr. Sargent stated that the matter could be first brought before the Board of Trustees at their regular meeting on January 17, 1962.

"I am surprised that the Trustees of the Westminster Choir College apparently have taken the attitude of William Vanderbilt when he said 'The public be damned.'"

Center Planned. The Board of Education seeks to buy the College's 18.6 acres across from Princeton High School between Walnut and Linden Lanes for an "educational center" which would consolidate all Borough schools in one location and enable the Board to sell both Nassau Street and Witherspoon Street schools.

The Choir College purchased the land in 1947. In 1960, the College began a promotion program to increase enrollment, and the additional students have taxed existing dormitories to near-capacity, according to Dr. Sargent.

He also said that enrollment was expected to increase again this year, causing an even tighter situation in housing.

BUDGET UP $54,658

For Borough Schools. A proposed budget of $1,635,926.57 for 1962-63, an increase of $54,658.51 over the current year, was announced this week by Princeton Borough Board of Education. A public hearing on the new budget will be held Thursday, January 18, at 8 p.m. in the Board of Education offices at Princeton High School.

Princeton Township's new school budget is scheduled to be released next week, and the public hearing has been set for Thursday, January 25, at 8 p.m. at Valley Road School. Both budgets will be submitted to voters at the annual school election on Tuesday, February 13.

The Borough's new budget represents an increase of 3.4 percent over that of the current year. More than half of the increase is expected to be paid for by raises in the tuition rate for both elementary and high school pupils, plus an anticipated rise in the number of tuition pupils.

The high school tuition will be raised from $625 to $635 and the elementary school tuition will go up from $450 to $460. The tuition increase should produce $28,885 in additional revenue, leaving an additional $25,773.51 to be raised by the Borough. This is expected to boost the local tax rate for school purposes by 10 points, as compared with a 12-point increase this year and a 13-point increase the previous year.

Salaries Major Factor. The main reason for the higher budget is the new teacher salary schedule adopted in 1959 by the Boards of Education of both the Borough and the Township. The salary increase was spread over three years, with 50 percent included in the 1960-61 budget, 25 percent more added into this year's budget, and the final 25 percent included in the proposed budget for 1962-63.

This means that the proposed budget now includes the full amount of the new salary schedule. The total amount scheduled for teachers' salaries is $1,079,050, an increase of $35,000 over this year's total.

Salaries in other departments are also scheduled to rise. The appropriation for administration salaries is $56,900, an increase of $15,000 over this year. Salaries for operation will go up $3,000 to $103,000; for attendance services, up $450 to $5,100, and for health services, up $950 to $22,550.

In addition, the amount budgeted for libraries and audio-visual materials is up from $11,000 to $12,500. This reflects investments to be made as part of a six-year program of expanding library materials. This is the second year of the program.

Appointment Planned. In connection with the budget an-

This Smoke
MASKS WHAT?

by A. N. SPANEL, Chairman
International Latex Corporation

The conservative London Daily Telegraph on December 27 frontpaged a report by a Diplomatic Correspondent that "President Nasser has agreed to the establishment of a Russian Naval base on the Egyptian coast."

Cairo hastened to deny the report. But that does not dispose of the matter. The head of the Soviet Navy, Admiral Gorshkov, arrived in Cairo on December 12, on invitation of his Egyptian opposite number, as part of a Soviet military mission. Alarmed Western governments, we may be sure, are exploring how much fire there may be behind the smoke. Nothing is beyond the self-willed Egyptian dictator, his recklessness and arrogance long fed by free-world appeasement.

As recent as January 3, 1962 Mr. C. L. Sulzberger, the gifted journalist of The New York Times wrote: "Egypt, which is all that remains of the United Arab Republic, has made a new arms deal with Russia, primarily involving ships . . . Nasser needs some coup for prestige reasons and presumably Soviet weapons serve that purpose. His renown has faded; he is at odds with most Arab states since the Syrian break; and Egypt's economy is bad. There has been practically no cotton crop . . . Nasser is importing cotton from the United States. Property expropriations cannot hold things together for long."

THE THREAT

Even the chance of Soviet nuclear-missiled submarines nested in the eastern Mediterranean is enough to jolt the West. The possibility will shock the American people especially, in view of the enormous aid the United States has given Egypt in dollar grants, foodstuffs, loans and gifts, to say nothing of moral and political support.

The man whom we have seen fit to trust and strengthen is the same Nasser to whose relief we rushed blindly in 1956, hand in hand with jubilant Soviet Russia, at the moment when France, Britain and Israel were in the process of guaranteeing the Suez Canal as a free artery of navigation for the world.

As long ago as August 3, 1956 — months, that is, before the disastrous Soviet-American intervention—this column warned: "In grabbing control of the Suez Canal, President Nasser of Egypt has placed a life-crushing tourniquet around the jugular vein of world commerce. He has put himself in a position to extort endless surrenders of their basic interests from the democratic Great Powers." We have repeated that warning through the ensuing years.

Unhappily these fears have been all too amply justified. The surrenders extorted by the pocket-edition Hitler on the Nile have made Russia, for the first time in modern history, a Middle Eastern Power and have opened lines of communist influence to Mediterranean Africa.

Nasser, despite occasional spats with his Kremlin mentors, has been following the Moscow lead in world affairs. He votes with the communist bloc in the United Nations, steals Western property, indulges in wild anti-Western propaganda, treats the Suez Canal as if it were a stream on his private estate.

OUR INTERESTS AT STAKE

How long before the Suez, the free world's lifeline in Africa, will become a pawn in the Kremlin's hands? What will then be the counterbalancing bastions of the free world in North Africa? Will we then wish that the French African naval base at Bizerte had remained where it is now — in French possession — instead of in Tunisia's grasp? And what about the enormously strategic bases—naval, air and missile — in the Algeria which Washington has for 8 years insisted was purely a colonial area without strategic meaning for the United States or for the NATO nations dependent on American nuclear military strength?

Has public opinion in our country fully grasped the significance of Nasser's arbitrary refusal to permit passage through the Canal to Portuguese gunboats rushing to defend Goa and other Portuguese enclaves against cold-blooded aggression by India? Was this Nasser's way of repaying Mr. Nehru, the apostle of peace and nonviolence, who so nobly raved his objections in 1956 on behalf of Egypt against the efforts of France, England and Israel in their Suez Canal campaign?

It was a Soviet veto that prevented the UN Security Council attempt to halt the Goa outrage. Clearly Nasser, athwart the Suez, also acted in close concert with Khrushchev.

Have we Americans fully grasped the significance of Nasser's recent arrest of four members of a French diplomatic mission, in defiance of diplomatic immunities and civilized international conduct? Understandably, the French people are bewildered and incensed by apparent American apathy on this Egyptian insult to a traditional friend and ally. Our State Department appears to remain inert, paralyzed, while the French diplomats are languishing in prison, being brainwashed in the familiar communist style in preparation for "demonstration trials" featuring "confessions." Not alone France but the free world will sit in the Egyptian dock.

COURAGEOUSLY MEETING THE ISSUES NOW

Our failure to halt Nasser early in his career of larceny and depredation has facilitated the Kremlin's undisguised purpose of extending its power into the Mediterranean. It has compounded the larger political error of our dismissal of the French struggle in North Africa as a "mere colonial matter," leaving France to fight a lone and desperate battle for the maintenance of free-world bastions in that critical area.

The dangerous confusion of our country in the face of the Soviet challenge in the Mediterranean continues. At this very moment there are reports that the United States is discussing seriously an Egyptian request for 400,000 bales of American cotton — the very product Nasser is exporting to the USSR in return for military equipment! If made available to Cairo, these bales would help extricate Nasser from the cotton crisis caused by his loss of Syria and, incidentally, bolster Egyptian competition with American cotton even in Europe and other markets.

Is there truly no limit to this compulsive, illogical, self-defeating policy of appeasement of the Egyptian dictator? How long shall we remain blind to the piled-up mischief worked by the Nasser-Khrushchev axis with what amounts to blind American cooperation? How long must the American taxpayers continue to save the dictator on the Nile from the consequences of his own arrogance, inflated ambition and cupidity?

Surely the time is overripe for a searching reappraisal of American policy in North Africa and the Mediterranean. We must immediately reconsider, before time runs out, (1) our role in relation to French control of Bizerte and the Algerian bastions of free-world power, and (2) our bewildering political and economic support of the Nasser dictatorship.

Late as the hour may be, we must restore close cooperation with France, our traditional ally and the one dependable member of the Western coalition in the Mediterranean, if we are to bar communism from that all-important theatre of conflict, both through Egypt and through North Africa. To do less is to guarantee the total success of a Soviet-Egyptian conspiracy against the West that is already far too advanced for comfort or complacency.

AND THE LITTLE ONE GOT AWAY: This is a picture of a three-truck accident that happened Friday morning on Route One at the Penns Neck circle. Two summons were issued by State Police, but the car that caused all the trouble just dusted itself off and drove away, scot-free. The culprit car was going south in the right-hand lane. All three trucks were going south, too—in the left-hand lane. The car signalled a left turn—which is not allowed—but hastily realized its error when it saw the trucks in the left lane. Truck number one saw the turn-signal and screeched to a halt. Truck number two crashed into its rear. Truck number three crashed into the rear of truck number two. Police could not ticket the car because, although it had signalled an illegal turn, it had never actually made one. Truck number one was innocent. But trucks number two and three received summonses for following too closely. State limit is 100 feet between each truck. (Staff Photo)

BOY, 6, DROWNS

Playmate Is Rescued. Michael A. Peters, 6-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Landon Peters of 72 Knoll Drive, fell through thin ice and drowned Sunday afternoon in Lake Carnegie.

His playmate, David A. Ludlum, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. David M. Ludlum of 285 Riverside Drive, also fell into the water, but hung onto the jagged ice and was rescued by Mrs. Courtland D. Perkins of 621 Lake Drive. Mrs. Perkins crawled 12 feet over thin ice on her hands and knees to reach the Ludlum boy and bring him to shore.

Princeton Township Police said the boys were playing, not skating, on the ice behind the Perkins home when the accident happened. Mrs. Perkins said she was attracted by the shouts of the Ludlum boy at about 1.30 p.m.

Mrs. Perkins said she ran to the lake, and began to walk on the ice toward the Ludlum boy. When the ice seemed as if it might crack, she retreated to shore and looked for a stick to hold out to David.

Crawls to Rescue. Finding nothing, Mrs. Perkins began crawling out to the boy on her hands and knees. Mrs. Perkins said she saw only one boy at the time. She said the Ludlum boy appeared to be in a state of shock and required five to ten minutes to mention his playmate.

By that time, Township Police had arrived, Sgt. Joseph Nini said it took police about two hours to recover the body of the Peters boy. Dr. J. Leonard Berry, deputy Mercer County physician, pronounced the boy dead at the scene at about 4 p.m.

Joining the Princeton First Aid Unit were the Union Rescue Squad from the Titusville-Washington Crossing area and the Rusling Rescue Squad from Hamilton Township. The Princeton organization has issued a statement thanking various residents of the area for bringing boats to the scene and offering other forms of assistance.

In addition to his mother and father, the Peters boy is survived by three brothers, Eric L., John U. and David L., and maternal and paternal grandparents, who live in Montclair. His father is an investment counselor with the Bank of New York.

The Ludlum boy is one of six children, four boys and two girls. His father is manager of Science Associates, a Princeton firm which sells and installs meterological instruments. Mrs. Perkins is the wife of the chairman of the department of aeronautical engineering at Princeton University.

A Mass of the Angels was celebrated for the Peters boy at St. Paul's Church. Interment was in the parish cemetery under direction of the Mather Funeral Home.

Township police said the drowning was the first in Lake Carnegie since August, 1955, when Patrick Maloney and Kenneth Werkman, and Patrolman Billie D. Ellis, who was searching for the boys' bodies, drowned in a time of flooding.

CULVERT ACTION SET

In Harry's Brook Area. Construction is expected to begin in April on a larger culvert for Harry's Brook in the area of Harriet Drive, Arthur T. Brokaw, Borough engineer, has announced. A target date of June 1 has been set for completion of the culvert, Mr Brokaw added.

The announcements were made at Tuesday's meeting of Borough Council in response

In a lecture we heard this thought - provoking quote from the book, "Make Your Habits Work For You.": One habit alone, Cary T. Kammler can influence the world's opinion of you. Think then, what the sum of your habits can bring about." The authors give evidence that few jobs can be more important for each one of us than working for and forming good habits. They point out that all adults live almost entirely by their habits, with the good ones working for us, and the bad ones working against us. They said, "Happiness or unhappiness, literally — aside from accident — depends upon your habits. . . . good habits, constantly cultivated, can bring you health, success, and wisdom." We were glad to be reminded of such basic truth, and felt it wouldn't be amiss to say also that it is not only your own habits which work for or against you. The habits of those firms and people from whom you buy most certainly are either good or bad for you. We try hard to put good habits to work for your maximum satisfaction and economy, and welcome your criticism whenever you see a way for improvement. Please, may we serve you? nouncement, Graham Rohrer, board president, also announced that the position of assistant superintendent of Borough schools would be filled during the year. The position has been vacant since the promotion of Dr. Chester R Stroup to superintendent.

It was also announced that high school guidance would be continued as a regular service This was first started during the past summer on an experimental basis and, Mr. Rohrer said, met with an enthusiastic response from both students and parents.

CREDIT IS TOPS

For Township. The Township Board of Education announced this week that the Township's credit rating with Moody's Investor's Service has been advanced from A to AA

This means that the Township now has the highest possible credit rating for a municipality of its size with Moody's, Standard and Poor's and Dun and Bradstreet.

In practical terms, the new rating means that there will be a lower interest cost on the bond issue for the Community Park School and future schools.

The School Board has credited its Citizens' Advisory Committee, consisting of William L. Wilson, William H Sword Michael Palmer and James Fitzpatrick, with bringing about the improved Township ratings.

Leonard Hymerling, chairman of the Board's construction committee, announced that, although the new school is behind schedule, it will probably be finished by August 1

All that rain last weekend (better than two inches Saturday and Sunday) and some unseasonably mild weather turned the grass hereabouts unseasonably green Regrettably, not for long.

It's still a long time to spring, and the Man was getting ready to prove it. Cold rain or snow is due Thursday or Friday, he said, with the thermometer unlikely to budge much above the freezing point at any time in the next few days

ROUND-UP

Next time it snows, property owners are advised not to delay in shoveling their walks. . . Police Chief Peter J. McCrohan took occasion following last weekend's thaw to warn for the second time this winter that failure to comply with the law will bring court action. . . "A warning to offenders will be followed by a summons if neglect persists," he declared

The season's first accumulation of snow has virtually disappeared as the result of a steady rain Saturday (1.95 inches) and unseasonably warm temperature (58) on Sunday. . . last week's low of 15 was matched by the cold wave that enveloped the east this Wednesday.

Additional gifts to the TOWN TOPICS Christmas Fund have raised the total to $4,210.40. . . Gordon Griffin, reported last week as the first man to serve simultaneously as attorney for both Princeton Borough and Township, proves to have had a predecessor three decades ago In the late William Vandewater, who served the two municipalities in a variety of legal capacities.

Township Administator Joseph Nini reports that Mayor Fairman and his fellow committee members held 49 full meetings averaging about three and a half hours each in 1961. . . . if laid end to end, the hours are equivalent to 'round-the-clock sessions for a full week.

Ten-year old Thomas Maginski of Trenton fell while skating in Baker Rink Saturday and fractured his leg. . . he was taken to Princeton Hospital by the Princeton First Aid Unit.

News Of The THEATRES

OFF-BROADWAY

On College Road. The intact New York production of Samuel Beckett's "Happy Days" will play in McCarter this Friday at 8:30 for a one-night stand.

The new Beckett play had its world premiere September 17 at the Cherry Lane Theatre and was the first of Beckett's plays to be premiered in this country. Beckett is the author of "Waiting for Godot," "Endgame" and "Krapp's Last Tape." Ruth White will star in the McCarter offering.

Theatre-goers who have January 6 tickets for Genevieve will find their tickets honored when the French supper-club star brings her new show to McCarter.

"From Paris, With Love" will be given on January 19 in McCarter. A new musical in the French manner, "From Paris With Love" was written especially for Genevieve and hare company: Luc Poret and Gus Viseur, guitar and accordion; and "Poudi", Genevieve's poodle. There will also be a company of dancers and musicians.

EN FRANCAIS

Two Plays. The Jean de Rigault-Treteau de Paris Theatre Company will make its second McCarter appearance this Saturday when its members present "Huis-Clos," by Jean-Paul Sartre and "La Cantatrice Chauve" by Eugene Ionesco.

The previous appearance of the company was in Moliere's "Le Misanthrope," which played McCarter in 1960. The company's present tour begins at McCarter and will cover a ten-week schedule of performances across the country.

"Huis-Clos" ("No Exit") was written by Sartre during the war and first performed in 1944. The present production has been staged by Tania Balachova, the noted French actress-director. Mme Balachova created the role of Ines in the original production.

"La Cantatrice Chauve," ("The Bald Soprano") was Ionesco's first play, dating from 1948. The present production marks the first time the work has been given in America in the language in which it was written. The play has been running continuously since 1954 at the Theatre de la Huchette, Paris, on a double bill with Ionesco's "The Lesson."

DANCERS ARE COMING

Ballet Theatre Will Perform. The American Ballet Theatre, acclaimed by critics as one of America's finest ballet companies, will appear at McCarter next Wednesday at 8:30 with a program of modern and classic ballets.

Included on the program will be "Swan Lake," "Caprichos" and "Etudes," danced by a company of 100 dancers recruited from many countries.

The Chilean-born Lupe Serrano is prima ballerina of the company. John Kriza and Royes Fernandez head the cast of dancers, which includes Toni Lander, Ruth Ann Koesun, Ivan Allen, Sallie Wilson and Bruce Marks. Mariane Orlando and Caj Selling, both of the Royal Swedish Ballet, are among the featured guest soloists.

BALLET ARTIST: Lupe Serrano will appear with American Ballet Theatre at McCarter next Wednesday.

TRIANGLE GROSSES BIG

On West Coast. Making its first visit to the West Coast in its 70-year history, Triangle Club grossed $43,000 with two California performances of "Tour de Farce."

Dana Attractions, now operating out of San Francisco, originally formed in Princeton, was instrumental in drawing Triangle out to the coast. Princeton graduate William Lockwood is head of Dana.

At the Pasadena Civic Auditorium, a standing-room-only audience of 2,980 paid over $24,000 to see the performance. Two nights later, Triangle took in $19,000 with a performance at San Francisco's War Memorial Opera House with an audience of 2,800.

PENNINGTON PLAYERS PLAN DRIVE: Seated: Mrs. Michael Arcieri, Mrs. Myron Barrett, Mrs. Kathryn Hoyt. Standing: Mrs. William Fitzcharles, Jr., Mrs. Albert Myers.

News Of The Theotres

Roth houses were sealed from a $10 top, and were filled as benefits for hospital groups. The Pasadena performance had been sold out for two months.

The 50 undergraduate members of the cast were on a 31-day, 21-performance, 17-city tour, which ended in New York last Friday.

DRIVE PLANNED

By Pennington Players. The Pennington Players membership committee has launched a drive for prospective patrons, subscribers and members. Committee members planning the campaign are Mrs. Kathryn Hoyt, chairman; Mrs. William Fitzcharles, Jr., Mrs. Albert Myers, Mrs. David Hoadley, Mrs Myron Barrett, Mrs. Michael Arcieri, publicity, and Mr. Mason Woolford, photography.

The annual program of the Players includes two three-act productions, one children's play; entry into the New Jersey Theatre League's one-act play tournament in the spring, and sponsorship of the Junior Players' teen-age group for the Hopewell Township School District. The Players have discussed devising a program for entertainment and readings for hospitals and institutions.

Those interested in joining the Pennington Players should contact Mrs. Hoyt, 422 Burd Street, or any member of the committee. Areas of activity include acting, stage craft, business and advertising.

THE PLAYHOUSE

Bachelor in Paradise (Jan 10-16) is a Bob Hope comedy, with all that that description implies. Fans of Hope will enjoy his antics and his wry comments as the author of a book on "How America Lives" who has settled down in a suburban California town (Paradise) to gather first-hand material.

The usual innocent entanglements are misconstrued and Hope winds up in court as the correspondent in three infidelity suits brought by irate husbands in the community. The lavish color and widescreen production features a host of lovely women, including Lana Turner, Janis Paige and Paula Prentiss. The leggy Miss Prentiss, by the way, appears for the third time with Jim Hutton, and the teaming is getting quite boring. She is a talented comedienne in her own right, possibly the best new one Hollywood has produced in some years, and deserves a chance to break away from type-casting.

Director Jack Arnold has mixed enough sophisticated comedy with pure slapstick to suit most people, and Hal Kanter and the late Valentine Davies collaborated on the script to provide Hope with usually amusing lines. Rating: where there's Hope, there's humor.

The Romao Spring of Mrs. Stone (January 17-29) is the film version of the only novel by Tennessee Williams. The novel, published in 1937, concerned the degradation of a wealthy American widow who cultivates an amorous relationship with a young Italian gigolo.

The screenplay, by Gavin Lambert, hews close to the story line. Vivien Leigh plays the widow and Warren Beatty, who showed promise in "Splendor in the Grass," plays the gigolo. The film was made in Rome, where Williams' story is set, under the direction of Jose Quintero, who has worked with the off-Broadway Circle-in-the Square company.

The pathetic history of Mrs. Stone's last fling made a stirring and poignant novel. The film seems to lack the lyricism of the author's prose and shows flashes of downright verbosity. It is reminiscent, in its better spots, of "Sweet Bird of Youth," a Williams' play.

THE GARDEN

A Cold Wind in August (January 10-16) features Lola Albright as a strip-tease dancer and Scott Marlowe as an unsophisticated adolescent. This unlikely pair is drawn together over a broken air conditioner and a love affair ensues.

The love affair is depicted in torrid detail and feverish implication. It is set against the background of a sweltering New York City summer, and the cold wind comes when the boy, who came to fix the air conditioner, realizes he's getting burned.

A Troy Films Production, this aberration in celluloid is another short feature, filling 80 embarrassing minutes. Harmless for adults, certainly raw but hardly realistic. In the summer it would be unbearable.

Tosca (January 17 only) is one of a series of seven filmed operas which will be shown on successive Wednesdays at The Garden.

In CinemaScope and color, Tosca stars Franca Duval and Franco Corelli. The classic Puccini opera is part of The Garden's "Grand Opera Film Festival."

The Mark (January 18-23) is one of the highlights of a thought-provoking crop of foreign films which have been making the rounds of American theatres. It stars Maria Schell and Stuart Whitman. The plot concerns a man's struggle against neurosis and prying people.

Released from prison, where he has been held for attempting to assault a young girl, the protagonist ("Whitman) enters the life of a small English town in an office job obtained for him by the prison psychiatrist. Just as he seems to be conquering neurosis — enter, prying people.

The film bears similarities to "The Scarlet Letter," with the crucial difference that the protagonist of this story never sins. He only attempts and fails, and then he attempts, helped by the healing love of a good and innocent woman, to achieve a new adjustment to life.

NEW POLICY ANNOUNCED

For Nassau Interiors. Starting this week, Nassau Interiors will give discounts of 10 to 20 percent on everything in the store except a few fair-traded items.

"We believe that we're the first of the quality furniture stores to come right out in the open and offer the public these discounts on fine furniture," said Leonard La Placa, owner of the store, in making the announcement.

Mr. La Placa plans to follow the discount road for one year, to see where it leads. He estimates that if he can increase his sales between 17 and 20 percent, he will be in the clear.

"If we can have such increases," he says, "we will be as well off as we have been before, and we will be helping our customers by selling them quality furniture at the lowest possible prices."

He expects, incidentally, that his prices will be 10 to 20 percent under those of the average New York department store.

Nassau Interiors stocks modern and traditional furniture—sofas, chairs, lamps, end tables, coffee tables, chests—and the discount rate will apply to all. Among the fair-traded items which will not be discounted are the Simmons Beautyrest mattresses, Mr. La Placa says.

Other lines, to which the discount will apply, are Willet cherry, Founders, Jamestown, Hickory chairs and sofas, Shaw chairs and sofas, Heckman tables in traditional mahogany, Selig's imported Danish sofas, chairs and tables, Lightolier wall, ceiling, floor and desk lamps and many others.

Mr. La Placa founded Nassau Interiors 15 years ago. He has been in his present location at 162 Nassau about 11 years.

WE'RE OFF

Cruising? Skiing? Both? A visit to Travelex this time of the year will make you forget the mud on your boots and icicles on your eyelashes. The travel agency at 195 Nassau is ready to send you anywhere, and we can't decide between Iceland, Seattle and the Caribbean.

About Iceland. Last place in the world you'd think of for a suave resort vacation, but there it is. Icelandic Airways wants to entice you to the island's new ski resorts, now being built north and northeast of Reykjavik about an hour's flying time away from the capital city.

Here, in the hot springs area, skiiers may stay at the most modern and advanced ski lodges, taking the mineral baths and using the services of expert masseurs—all very continental. Icelandic sent a representative to Princeton this week to explain things to the natives, by the way, and we're all ready to go.

Icelandic's fares on into Oslo, Luxembourg or Glasgow are lower than the fares on some of the larger carriers, Travelex informs us.

Seattle, of course, offers the World's Fair next summer. The beckoning beacon is the restaurant on top of the Space Needle. (The Space N. is Seattle's answer to the Eiffel Tower.)

This restaurant revolves a complete circle every hour offering diners a spectacular view of Lake Washington and the Seattle environs. (The only other cities that have revolving restaurants on top of towers are Honolulu and Stuttgart—think Princeton has a chance?)

If you have 35 days to spare this summer, Moore-McCormack would appreciate it if you would spend them on a Scandinavian cruise. You can take the S. S. Agentina or the S. S. Brazil to Russia, around the Baltic and in and out of

Sail Away?

Too late now to make any reservations for the maiden crossing of the new S. S. France on February 13. (Start swimming, dear.)

However, you may be interested to learn that the new French Line ship has finished her speed trials and has been found to equal the S. S. United States, which is the blue-ribbon ship of the speed run.

The France will be in New York on February 8, according to our informant, the Travelex Agency, and will be open for inspection for the next five days. If you are a VIP or a travel agent or a cruise hostess or some such, you might wangle an invitation aboard.

Otherwise, you'll just have to wait, but Travelex thinks you might be able to get a reservation for this summer, if you missed February 13.

The gourmet breakfast you owe yourself . . . fruit juice, Scotch kippers, toast, coffee, 50c.

to a request for a progress report from Robert C. Christie of 67 Harriet Drive. Mr. Christie's property suffered extensive damage from flooding last August.

Mr. Brokaw said preliminary field studies will begin Saturday. The Borough hopes to receive financial assistance from the County, and both County and State Officials must approve plans before construction can begin, Mr. Brokaw added.

Council confirmed by unanimous vote the appointment of Arthur T Morgan of 18 Hibben Road to the Planning Board Mr. Morgan will serve until July 1, 1965, filling the unexpired term of John R. Sly, who has resigned. Mr Morgan is also a member of the Zoning Board

Council set February 13 as the date for a public hearing on an amendment to an ordinance which defines the offense of "loitering." The amendment would broaden the definition of the offense to include loitering which "interferes with the free and unobstructed use of property.

Under the present ordinance only loitering under the influence of alcohol and loitering which causes annoyance to other persons are prohibited. The amendment has been requested by the police department. Loitering is punishable by a fine of $25 or five days in jail.

Councilman William H Walker, welfare committee chairman, announced that the Local Assistance Board is seeking a replacement for Mrs. Alice Schannel, who will resign from the post of Welfare Director. She has held that post for 13 years. Mrs. Schannel will continue her duties as Clerk of Borough Court.

JEWELRY STOLEN

$3800 Worth from LaVakes. Ability to break a large Nassau Street show window in pre-dawn hours without attracting attention netted a burglar about $3800 worth of jewelry from LaVake's early Sunday morning.

The theft was discovered at 5:40 by Daniel McVeigh, night watchman who was making his usual rounds for Palmer Square, Inc. Samuel Kind, owner of the 54 Nassau Street store, estimated the loss at $3,817, mostly in diamond rings.

Police believe that a large instrument was used to break the window, the hole providing easy access to the thief. In addition to the rings, several watches and pins were also taken.

The burglary is the largest from a Nassau store since the English Shop was rifled of several thousand dollars worth of clothing some years ago. Sergeant James Kopliner and Patrolman John Bellows, Jr. answered Mr. McVeigh's call, and Detective Arthur Gallant is investigating.

GROWTH CITED

By First National Bank. A joint statement from John F. Hoff Jr., chairman of the board of the First National Bank of Princeton, and John P Poe, president, points to growth in many areas during 1961, and to the need for physical expansion. Both deposits and total resources showed an increase of over $4,000,000 for the second year in a row.

"We are currently applying for permission to open a new branch in the east end of town to serve that growing sector," the report to the shareholders states. "We are in the process of expanding counter space at our West Windsor office, and providing an additional teller there.

"You are currently being asked to approve acquisition of additional ground space contiguous to our main office which will permit expansion of our public lobby space, allow for additional tellers, new vaults and larger officers' quarters." Mr. Poe reported that negotiations were proceeding to acquire ground floor space at 8 Witherspoon Street, currently occupied by Masselos Pictures and Framing.

In discussing the bank's financial structure, the statement noted "The investment account, which in size is approximately the same as our loans, continues to be highly flexible, with maturities mainly short. During the year, maturing securities were reinvested at improved yields, a condition which should continue through 1962.

"Loans of all types continue to grow with the demands of our expanding community. They are of good quality, well secured by collateral security or high credit standing and present no serious problems. Demand for travellers' checks, foreign drafts and money orders has continued to expand as has the volume of security transactions for account of customers. Activities of the trust department have grown steadily."

NO "BLIGHT"

Council Must Now Act. The next move in the Urban Renewal drama now being played to its final curtain in the Borough, is action by Borough Council on the Planning Board's vote at its last meeting that there is no blight in the Witherspoon-John section.

Backs School Board's Plan.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

As a Borough resident and father of four children, I would like to express my enthusiasm for the recently announced plans of the Borough Board of Education to acquire land for new schools from the Westminster Choir School. This forward step should result in improving a fine school system.

The Board buried Urban Renewal at its last meeting by reversing itself and deciding, 5-2, that no blight exists in the controversial area. The Board had voted last June, 4-3, that the area was blighted.

In other action, the Board rejected the "Proposed Master Plan Revisions" that had suggested other parts of the Borough, ranging from Bank Street to Linden Lane, as future Urban Renewal areas.

Next Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Engineering Building on Witherspoon Street, the Board will hold a public meeting to discuss the Master Plan and decide what should be kept and what should be discarded or revised.

The Board also reappointed F. Dodd McHugh as its consultant for the coming year and directed him, by a 7-0 vote, to prepare a revised Master Plan. It was Mr. McHugh who prepared the rejected recommendations.

Planning Board members who voted against the "blight" determination were Mayor Henry S. Patterson, Charles R. Erdman, Jr., S. Webster Dodge, Bryan V. Moore and Albert A. Austen.

Mr. Austen, Borough Councilman member of the Planning Board, had abstained from the June vote. It was he who initiated the move to reconsider the previous vote.

Voting that the area is blighted were Arthur T. Brokaw, Borough engineer, and Edward G. Hofgesang. John F. Sly and Martin L. Beck were absent from the meeting. Dr. Sly has resigned from the Planning Board and Mr. Beck was out of town.

Mayor Patterson said that he was voting so that the decision would be a clear-cut one, but that, in view of his short tenure on the Board, he would have preferred to abstain.

David Deitz, attorney for Burnett Griggs, told the Board that his client's suit against the Planning Board would be dismissed as a result of the no-blight action. Mr. Griggs owns a restaurant on Witherspoon and Hulfish in the "no-blight" area.

HEADS CARNIVAL COMMITTEE: Mrs. John F. Mueller will direct planning of 1962 Ice Carnival.

ICE CARNIVAL PLANNED

For Baker Rink. The Princeton Skating Club will sponsor an ice carnival in Baker Rink on March 23 and 24. Mrs. John F. Mueller is general chairman.

It is hoped that several of the nation's top ice skaters will participate, Mrs. Mueller said. Individual performances, ballet and group skating and comedy routines are planned.

The ice carnival is sanctioned by the U. S. Figure Skating Association. Theme of the carnival will be "Through the Looking Glass."

A part of the proceeds will go to the YM-YWCA building fund. The Skating Club last sponsored an ice carnival in 1958.

Assisting Mrs. Mueller are Miss Margaretta Cowenhoven, secretary; Thomas C. Atchinson, treasurer; Miss Elizabeth Hiscock and Harold Stafford, production directors. Committee chairmen are John Bernard, Mrs. Peterson Marzoni, Mrs. Dudley E. Woodbridge, Mrs. Robert J. Sullivan, Mrs. Harold Erdman, Mrs. Frederick P. King and Mrs. H. Yale Tyler.

LECTURES SCHEDULED

On Problems of U. N. The first series of lectures in the second term of the Princeton Adult School will be on the topic "The United Nations in 1962: The Problems of Organizing a Peaceful World." The second term will begin Thursday, February 8.

John R. Martin, chairman of the Adult Education Committee, said the series is being planned with the assistance of the Princeton Chapter of the American Association for the United Nations. Ten speakers have been engaged.

Mr. Martin said the following courses will be repeated next term: "Fundamentals of Design," taught by Mrs. Margaret K. Johnson; "Playing the Recorder," taught by Herbert Kellman; and "Out-of-Doors in Princeton," taught by Miss Dorothy Compton.

Full descriptions of all courses and registration information will appear next week in TOWN TOPICS. Those wishing advance information may write the school at P O Box 701.

CARS AWASH

In High Water. Two cars were marooned Saturday night in high water near Souatters Grove and the occupants were rescued by members of the First Aid and Rescue Squad.

Responding to a call from Port Mercer residents, Township police notified the Princeton Rescue Squad whose members extricated Howard Douglas, 17, of Moorestown, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Edwards of Rocky Hill from their respective cars, both caught in the flood waters of Quaker Bridge Road.

In another fog-bound accident Saturday, five cars and a tractor-trailer piled up on Route One after the truck jack-knifed. Seven people were taken to Princeton Hospital for treatment and two were admitted. All were out-of-town residents.

The Great Road curve added another notch to its total Saturday afternoon when Richard W. Glenn, 25, Hopewell, travelling south, came around the curve in the left-hand lane, striking the front fender of the car driven by Lewis S. Kraft, 39, Ridgeview Road, travelling north.

Mr. Glenn told Township police he was going too fast down the south curve and couldn't make the bend. He was given a summons. Slight damage was inflicted, once again, on the property of William Kiefer, frequently a victim of Great Road curve accidents. A lamp-post was damaged.

Stanley Pasko, 49, 75 Rollingmead, was injured Friday afternoon when he was involved as the middle car in a three-car accident on the Princeton-Kingston Road near Shadybrook.

All three cars were travelling east. Albert E. Iverson, 62, 302 Jefferson Road was first, Mr. Pasko was second and Chester M. Potts, 62, 56 Fisher Avenue, was third.

The first two cars had stopped in lane for traffic. The third car failed to stop and hit the second, which then crashed into the first. Mr. Potts, the third driver, was given a summons for careless driving by Township police. Mr. Pasko, who suffered a mild concussion, has since been released from Princeton Hospital.

Last Wednesday night, Mrs. Henrick J. Hagerup, 32, of Cranbury, was going north on Washington Road and had just crossed the bridge when the car in front of her pulled to a stop to pick up a hitchhiker.

Mrs. Hagerup veered left, lost control of her small car, hit the west curb, skidded 52 feet, turned over and rolled 36 feet coming to rest right-side-up. Mrs. Hagerup told Township police she was going about 40 m.p.h.

In another roll-over accident, Randolph E. Applegate, Jr., 22, of 34 Maple Street, driving west on Cherry Valley Road New Year's morning at 10 a.m., swerved to avoid a deer, hit a patch of ice and skidded when he applied the brakes.

Mr. Applegate turned end over end in his car, but was not injured. The car, however, was a total loss.

ELDERLY MAN HIT

By Car. George E. Coward, 83, Hightstown Road, Princeton Junction, was struck by a car last Thursday morning and is in critical condition at Princeton Hospital with a compound fracture of the right leg and a dislocated left shoulder.

The accident occurred about 100 feet east of the Clarksville intersection on the Hightstown Road. Mr. Coward was struck by a car driven by Warren Bliss, 56, 130 Littlebrook Road, and was taken to Princeton Hospital by the Princeton First Aid and Rescue Squad.

No police action has been taken against Mr. Bliss, State Police said.

MORE ON "MANSGROVE"

Another Hearing Set. The sixth hearing in the "Mansgrove" case, now before the Township Zoning Board, will be held next Thursday at 9 p.m. in Township Hall following the regular Zoning Board hearing.

At the close of the fifth hearing last Thursday, Seymour Montgomery, representing Horatio Turner who hopes to build a multiple-housing project called "Mansgrove Gardens" on his Jefferson Road property, told the Zoning Board that he hoped to conclude his presentation Thursday but could not promise to do so.

After he has presented his case, Theodore T. Tams, Jr., representing the Hillcrest Civic Association, will present his to the Board.

At Thursday's hearing, Mr. Montgomery questioned B. Franklin Bunn whom he had subpoened to appear before the Board. Mr. Bunn, a resident of the Township for 58 years, was on Township Committee for 16 years and was mayor for 12. He was also a member of the Planning Board's Subcommittee on Multiple Housing.

Mr. Tams protested that, by his questions, Mr. Montgomery was treating Mr. Bunn as an expert, not as a subpoened, witness. In response to a question by Hervey S. Moore, Jr., assistant Township attorney, Mr. Bunn said he did not consider himself an expert. He also said that he knew he would be asked for an opinion on "Mansgrove Gardens" when he was subpoened to testify.

The Board did not allow Mr. Montgomery to ask Mr. Bunn his opinion on the suitability of "Mansgrove Gardens" to the site in question.

William F. Waldron, an engineer, identified for the Board, lot by lot, the various houses, business establishments and public buildings along Valley Road, Witherspoon and Route 206.

Mr. Turner, owner of the property in question, took the stand and told the Board that he first heard of the extension of Terhune Road (which bisects his property) in 1948, and that he was invited to Township Hall to confer about the road in April, 1950. He cited the frequent objections he has made to the road.

Mr. Montgomery tried to offer as evidence a petition which had been signed some years ago by persons who opposed the road, but the Board sustained Mr. Tams' objections and refused to accept the petition as relevant evidence.

TWO WOMEN FINED

For Speeding. Mrs. Lorraine E. Garland, 32, of 57 Lower Harrison Street, and Miss Georgia Griffin, 18, of 80 Nassau Street, were each fined for speeding Monday by Magistrate Theodore T. Tams, Jr. Mrs. Garland was fined $14 and Miss Griffin, $20. Both pleaded guilty.

In other cases, Mrs. Ann M. Brower, 29, of 94 Linden Lane, paid a $12 fine after pleading guilty to a one-way street violation, and David L. Johnson, 21, of 248 Bayard Lane paid $15 on a late inspection charge. John G. Van Zant, 58, no address, was fined $25 in criminal court for petty larceny.

He was charged with taking five cartons of cigarettes from Viedt's Chocolate Shoppe, 110 Nassau Street. All pleaded guilty.

DENTIST SEEKS PERMIT

For Office-Home. Dr. Arnold J. Hirsch, 352 Nassau Street, has applied to the Township Zoning Board for special permit to build a house and office at 205-211 North Harrison in an R-6 residential zone.

Dr. Hirsch's application states that he will build the house as his own residence, and will practice orthodontistry in the office. Hearing will be held next Thursday at 8 p.m. in Township Hall.

Have A Doughnut

The Senior Girl Scout troop will sell doughnuts and hot cocoa to skaters on Lake Carnegie each weekend when ice permits. The area covered will be between the Harrison Street Bridge and the boat house.

Troop leaders are Mrs. Heath Licklider, Mrs. David Parnes, Mrs. William Beaney and Mrs. L. H. Meyers. The committee in charge of the project includes Anne Chenicek, chairman; Cindy Cronk, Jane Johnston, Linda Blattenberger, Susan Starbuck and Pam Hosenzahl.

Proceeds from the project will be used for maintenance of the troop's boats. A mobile cooking unit, owned by the troop, will be used by groups of eight or ten in rotation.

Dog Bites Two Children

Two eight-year-old boys were bitten by a dog Friday morning at the Johnson Park School. In past weeks, dogs have been snatching lunches from children on the school grounds, and Township police believe that the two boys were defending their lunches when they were bitten.

Alfred W. Gardner, Jr., 8, Constitution Drive, was bitten on the upper left leg and Faus Bradley, 8, Cherry Hill Road, on the right arm. Both boys sustained multiple bites and were treated at doctors' offices.

Township police identified the dog as a Labrador retriever belonging to Mrs. Seymour Morris, 67 Rosedale Road. He will be quarantined for 10 days under the rabies regulations, and will be permanently confined to a leash by order of the police.

ASPHALT, ASPHALT EVERYWHERE: And not a place to park, laments Harold Heacock, having his hair cut by Nicholas Chisano who, in turn, is unhappy over the swiftness with which the police issue parking tickets. An improvement in these areas is what they would most like Mayor Patterson to accomplish in his first year in office. (Staff Photo.)

Question of the Week

Question: What would you most like to see Mayor Patterson accomplish in his first year?

Where asked: Around town.

Mrs. Robert S. Taylor, 18 Aiken Avenue, housewife: The traffic mess on Nassau Street bothers me more than anything. I would love to come to Nassau Street to shop, but, as it is, I have to drive around and around and usually end up at the Shopping Center where I don't want to go. I realize he can't do it in one fell swoop but he should make an honest effort to try to solve it in some way. The main thing, I would think, would be to get rid of all the out-of-town traffic coming off Washington Road that clogs up the town.

Mrs. Sykes Terry, 53 Marion Road, West, secretary: Bring the Township and Borough together. Consolidation. It's got to come sooner or later. And I like to see Mayor Patterson use more women in planning for the future. I feel more women in government wouldn't hurt anything.

Nicholas Chisano, 16 Witherspoon Street, owner of Rialto Barber Shop: Straighten out the parking ticket situation. The police are too strict on people parking overtime. You still get a ticket even if you have parked only a minute or two overtime. They should use greater leaway; they're driving business right out of town. I think this is a very serious problem. It's hurting the town. They should give the merchants in town a break on parking.

Harold Heacock, 248 Nassau Street, co-owner of gas station: I think one thing he could improve on is the parking situation. It's almost impossible to find one I had to drive around the block three times before I could find a spot to get a haircut and even then I had to park over a block away. Another thing he could concentrate on is getting that alternate route for trucks.

Tyrone Silvis, 11 1/4 Jackson Street, 8th grader, Witherspoon School: Build another YMCA to keep the youths of Princeton out of trouble. The present Y doesn't have a gym and there are enough boys in town to keep two Y's occupied

Mrs. Russell Davison, 193 Harrison Street, housewife: I'd like to see less politics and a better understanding between the two political parties. I think this is a big issue. While I think the Borough and the Township should cooperate more with one another, I feel in the Borough it is the party that has the power and not the people.

William A. Garrigues, 18 Springdale Road: Since I've been away, I'm not familiar with all the immediate problems, but, overall, I would say have an efficient and business-like administration. If he does, then everything will be all right.

Mrs. Mary Smith, 9 Haslet Avenue, housekeeper: I would like to see him get some kind of control on rents here in Princeton whereby people would pay according to what they could afford.

Mrs. Joan Levinson, 253 Mt. Lucas Road, research assistant: I think the most pressing problem is a traffic problem. Getting all the trucks out of town should be a primary goal. And, also, although I know he isn't thinking about it, consolidation of the Borough and Township.

James Moore, Somerville Road, postman: I would like to see him iron out the traffic situation. The congestion on Nassau Street around 5 o'clock when the offices close is terrible, which is quite obvious.

Mrs. Richard Williams, Scott Avenue, Princeton Junction, housewife: Do something about the traffic problem. There is so much congestion in town that it is impossible to shop. I find it is easier to come into town early Saturday morning. It is hard to drive through town anytime, anymore.

Edward F. Wright, 144 Hamilton Avenue, outdoor advertiser: Stop building unnecessary sidewalks.

Mrs. Alan Tredennick, 343 Snowden Lane, housewife: I think something should be done about Nassau Street, meaning the truck traffic. Something to route them around Princeton. I think the by-pass is the most important thing I know of. As I don't live in the Borough, that affects me the most every time I come into town.

Richard Rogers, Martine Avenue, Plainfield: I'd like to see him do something about Washington Road where all the students get killed. The most constructive and immediate action he could take is to see that the speed limit there is strictly enforced. If I were a student at Princeton I'd be afraid to go near that road. Drivers seem to consider Washington Road an extension of Route 1 and if they knew it was being patrolled vigorously, I think they would stop speeding.

James Bess, Mercer Road, industrial worker: From my standpoint, I would like to see more housing for middle-income people. I make too much to live in the low-income housing developments and not enough to live in the high. I've been looking for three years now to find a house to buy, or even a decent apartment.

Mrs. Grace D. McCrohan, 109 Nassau Street, homemaker: To get that traffic situation quieted down on Nassau Street. I live there and it is a mess. Congestion, traffic, children on bikes—that's the second thing I would ask; keep the children on bicycles off the streets: I saw an old lady knocked down on Nassau Street just before Christmas It's awful!

MUSIC
In Princeton

FRAGER HEARD

In Varied Program. On Monday evening at McCarter Theatre, Series 1 of the Princeton University Concerts presented a recital by the young American pianist, Malcolm Frager. The program included works by Bach, Haydn, Schumann, Chopin and Prokofiev, whose Sixth Sonata made up the second half of the program.

This sort of survey program is all too standard, especially among pianists. However, in attempting to show that they can play everything well, most pianists merely demonstrate that they are not perfect. Since nobody — even the hard-hearted inhabitant of this column — expects them to be perfect, such a program seems a gratuitous courting of disapproval.

To play 90 minutes worth of music very well is a not inconsiderable feat, and if that 90 minutes of music happens not to span chronologically the entire range of piano literature, this should not be considered a grievous fault in a performer. It may be true that audiences prefer a variety of styles, but it is difficult to believe that they really prefer an indifferent performance of something "different" to a superior performance of something "similar." Variety is no substitute for quality, and the most satisfying recitals often are "all-Beethoven", "all-Chopin", or the like.

The upshot of all this is that very few pianists in the world could bring off everything in Mr. Frager's program with equal success — and Mr. Frager is not one of those few. In fact, the first half of the program did not show him to great advantage, even making allowance for the difficulties of a strange piano (and stronger words than "strange" have been applied to this piano).

The most characteristic aspect of this part of the program was the performer's reliance on a "formula" approach to the music; this was "Interpretation" applied externally, rather than from the inner demands of the individual piece. For example, a series of runs, alternating up and down, in the Haydn A-flat Major Sonata, was subjected to a swell-box dynamic. In the Bach G Minor Toccata (not one of that master's happier inspirations) there were all the old-school ritards at the cadences — although, in fairness, it should be mentioned that Mr. Frager did begin his trills on the upper note.

Such examples could be multiplied, but they all add up to the impression that Mr. Frager does not yet seem to know what to do when the composer's instructions are not specific, and so he applies a series of cliches of interpretation, according to the "style" of the work.

On the other hand, the Prokofiev Sonata might have been written for this pianist's strengths. Sad to relate, however, pieces written for this kind of pianist are rarely out of the composer's top drawer, and this one was no exception; a dreary and obvious example of "modern music for the masses," it spanned the gamut from wrong-note Tchaikovsky to straight Eddy Duchin, with side trips in between.

Oddly enough, the most satisfying experience of the evening was the second encore, Liszt's Eighth Hungarian Rhapsody, which is perhaps trash, but at least has no pretension to anything else. This was played by Mr. Frager with sensational facility, and with an enthusiasm, involvement and enjoyment not evidenced to any such degree elsewhere in the program; it might have been a different pianist — and a much more interesting one — than the one we had been hearing.

FESTIVAL DATE SET

By United Fund. The third annual Festival of Song sponsored by the Greater Princeton United Community Fund will be given on Wednesday and Thursday, February 7 and 8 in McCarter Theatre. Performances will begin at 8:15 p.m.

This year's Festival will again feature the Columbus Boy Choir, the Princeton High School Choir, the Westminster Choir and several specialties including a Triangle Club review, excerpts from last spring's Princeton production of "Guys and Dolls," the Palmer Squares, the Nassoons and the Opposite Sextette.

Proceeds will be used to start a Memorial Foundation of the Greater Princeton United Community Fund. The Foundation will provide a way for individuals, business firms and organizations to make bequests to the United Fund beyond their usual annual contributions.

The foundation will then become a source of income which can be used for continuing community planning in health, recreation, family and child care, according to fund officers.

The Festival will again be under the direction of Herbert Hobler. Details on ticket prices will be announced next week.

BOOKED BY McCARTER: Julian Bream, guitarist, will play in a Sunday matinee January 21.

SCHEDULE KODALY WORK

By Musical Amateurs. Members of the Princeton Society of Musical Amateurs will gather, with orchestra, this Sunday at 5 in the gymnasium of Miss Fine's School to sing the Te Deum by Kodaly.

Soloists will be Shiela Marks, soprano; Elva Kelsall, contralto; Robert Holland, tenor and Woodward Waesche, bass. Elizabeth Davidson will be the pianist and Barbara Lewis will be the conductor.

All who wish to attend are invited to do so, but are asked to inform Mrs. MacKenty Bryan so that arrangements may be made for music. Mrs. Bryan is available between 2 and 5 p.m. at WA 4-0453.

Scandinavia, touching at Leningrad, (side trips to Moscow), Geirangerfjord, Bergen, Oslo, Stockholm, Travemunde, Copenhagen and the like.

Both ships are all first class, all air-conditioned, all outside staterooms.

Travelex says that it's going to be easier to obtain cruise passage from now on, chiefly because the Canadian Pacific has announced plans to withdraw its ships from transatlantic service for four months during the winter and siphon them off into the Caribbean cruise lanes.

Furness-Withy is contemplating the same action, Travelex says, and the agency believes that, with more ships in the cruise business, there will be more offered for the cruise dollar, and more accommodations designed to fit varying budgets.

LINEN, COTTON

Offered by Goupil. For some time around 5, the exact hour fore or aft depending on where you are, Elise Goupil has some resort dresses that will make you wish 5 o'clock came every hour.

One is white cotton with emerald roses and lime leaves in tropical profusion. It has an emerald velvet sash at the start of the full skirt and a deep U back and half-inch straps (noodle, as opposed to spaghetti).

A companion has powder blue and bright coral roses against a white embossed cotton groun . A low boat neck sweeps across the front and a slim track of piping sets off the bodice from the flaring, stiffened skirt.

Silk chiffon has been gathered into a very full skirt, attached to the waist with a crushed sash of the same bold tropical print as the dress. The throat has a squared U line, and the straps are wider than most.

Oleg Cassini's gift to Elise Goupil is a group of three handsome daytime dresses to wear in a warm climate. One is a brilliant royal blue linen in a one piece cut that looks like two pieces. There is white piping around the short sleeves and around the diamond-shaped crossing of the "jacket." A single button holds the "jacket" together.

Turning to a more sophisticated client, Cassini designs a rose beige suit in open weave French wool with straight skirt, three-quarter sleeved jacket with brass buttons on the pockets, and a supple ombre chiffon overblouse in gold and brown lined with silk. The shadows of the blouse are repeated in the jacket lining.

The third Cassini offering is a gold sheath of silk Malabar with fascinating detail work in its shaping tucks. They are folded and stitched rather like intersecting roads, with one long narrow V-shaped one following the skirt front to a point at the hem.

David Crystal's contribution is a printed silk with U neck, short sleeves and belt. McMullen has a lilac linen with a deep U back, a round neck and a braided belt combining the lilac with deep purple and coral. A Hong Kong sweater picks up the coral.

WE DANES—AND YOU

SPORTS AND GAMES

Cricket is played moderately. Archery is being taken up more and more. Rowing—both for pleasure and in the strenuous sport of boat-racing — is pursued with passion.

There are plenty of opportunities for watching wrestling or boxing. Unorganized fights are rare. When they do occur the Danes clearly show their disapproval of aggressiveness uncontrolled by some sort of Queensbury rules.

Athletics and gymnastics are important. As long ago as 1860 an English traveller commented on "the poles and gibbets" for gymnastics in the numerous villages through which he passed. Danish gymnasts are quite famous. Still, foreigners are free to do their exercises every morning if they care to without being expected to demonstrate new or better features.

Fishing for pleasure, with fair prospects of catching some fish as well, is a great thing in Denmark both for salt water and fresh water fish. There is funny fishing, but large whales are found in Danish waters only about once in 50 years. There is no point in sitting about and waiting for them.

There is excellent shooting in many places. Dyrehaven, where there are thousands of red-deer all the year round, perhaps offers the best opportunities for people who just want to shoot something, but it is absolutely forbidden to shoot them in the country, particularly in Jutland, the Danes are very keen on the arduous sport of "rough shooting."

Polar bears are to be found only in the Zoo.

AS WE SEE IT!

By John Conole

Let's talk about saving money

For many years now, the need for adequate automobile insurance has become more and more apparent. While there certainly is an undeniable need the cost has gone up and up. We are sure you will agree that it is high time something was done about it.

Undoubtedly you have asked yourself this question: "Why should I pay for the other fellow's mistakes?" The same question has been asked by many of the finer insurance companies. At long last, we feel that there is a reasonable answer. It is called the RED SHIELD SPECIAL AUTOMOBILE POLICY.

Naturally, all drivers cannot qualify for this modern insurance. Only the best drivers are accepted. Obviously, the reasoning behind this is to cull the best possible motorists from the many who are what we would call average.

AS WE SEE IT, any driver who feels that he would qualify owes it to himself to look into RED SHIELD insurance. Here is a policy that can save as much as 30% because only good drivers can be insured under this plan.

We invite anyone interested to telephone, write or drop in to talk about saving money. MERCER-PRINCETON REALTY COMPANY, INC., 21 Chambers Street, WA 1-7282.

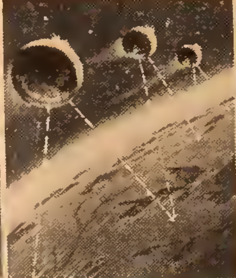
On the way:
A COMMUNICATIONS REVOLUTION
(and what it will mean to you)

America's communications services are the most advanced in the world. Yet right now we are working on a series of technical breakthroughs that will truly revolutionize communications as you now know it. At Bell Labs here in New Jersey (home of the transistor and the solar battery), you'll find many projects that will take communications forward in giant steps. As these and other new communications advances are developed, you can be sure New Jersey Bell will be hard at work to bring the benefits to you.

Phones will dial your numbers automatically.
The new automatic-dialing telephone will be ready for introduction later this year. You'll be able to reach frequently-called numbers at the touch of a button.



Your conversation (and TV) will be carried via satellites.
The Bell System stands ready now to launch a series of orbiting satellites that will make international phoning and world-wide TV via space an everyday reality.

A pencil-thin beam of light may carry your voice and thousands more.
The optical maser, under development at Bell Labs, will provide exciting new channels to meet the future growth of phone service.

AGENCY INCORPORATES

Lenhart and Cady Formed. R. L. Lenhart, founder of Lenhart and Company, advertising agency, has joined with Jack P. Cady to form Lenhart and Cady, Inc. The firm will supply full advertising agency service for local and national clients in consumer and industrial fields, and will operate from offices in the 206 Center.

Mr Lenhart, who started his own advertising firm in 1945, has been in the business for 25 years, working for many years, with New York agencies before starting his own. He is a resident of Hopewell, serving in Princeton as a director of the Greater Princeton Chamber of Commerce and Civic Council and the Princeton Kiwanis Club.

Mr. Cady was formerly the advertising manager of the Princeton Packet. A graduate of the University of Oregon, he worked as a newspaper advertising manager in Utica New York, before coming to New Jersey.

A resident of Bound Brook, he is active in the New Jersey Junior Chamber of Commerce, serving on the State Tax Reform and New Jersey Jet Port committees. He has also served as state Jaycee Extension Chairman.

PROMOTIONS ANNOUNCED

At Bank and Trust. Five members of the staff of the Princeton Bank and Trust Company have been promoted, four of them having titles for the first time.

Lionel V. Silvester, Jr., has been advanced to assistant trust officer and assistant secretary. He has been an assistant secretary of the bank's Trust Division since 1957.

The four new officers are Roscoe V. Roos, assistant comptroller; Cornelius Arnett, assistant treasurer; Edwin F. Lowe, assistant manager of the Hopewell Branch and Clifford A. Robbins, assistant manager of the Princeton Township Branch.

CRITICS CHALLENGED

In ETS Annual Report. Critics of educational measurement and testing have been challenged by Dr. Henry Chauncey, president of Educational Testing Service, to show a sense of constructive responsibility.

In his annual report for 1960-61, Dr. Chauncey asserts that the critic has a duty to "know what he is talking about,, to avoid personal prejudice and to approach the subject in perspective and context."

The goal of testing today, says Dr. Chauncey, is to "help students, not to coerce them, to highlight the vast range of individual differences, not to encourage conformity."

Citing the 45 million students enrolled in elementary and secondary schools and the estimated seven million college and university enrollment predicted for 1970, Dr. Chauncey says:

"No amount of nostalgia for the good old days will make either the teaching or testing methods of that period adequate for today's needs."

Among the new tests and programs undertaken during the period covered by the report were the Peace Corps Entrance Test and the U S Informational Agency's Career Reserve Officer Training Program.

BUILDING LEASED

By General Devices. The Astro-Electronic Division of RCA has leased part of the General Devices building on Ridge Road and will occupy some 10,000 square feet of the structure until the new RCA facilities have been completed. The Astro-Electronic Division is a customer of General Devices.

Commenting on the arrangement, Raymond P. Moore of GDI said: "It represents a close relationship between customer and vendor and provides us with the opportunity of supplying RCA with high-priority equipment on short notice with fast delivery."

AGENT NAMED

By Mutual Benefit. Allen H Stoecker has been named general agent of the new offices of Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company of Newark The The offices, at 20 Nassau Street, are the second to be opened in New Jersey by the agency.

Mr. Stoecker will direct the company's life insurance operations for south and central New Jersey from the Princeton office. He has been with Mutual Benefit Life since 1953, serving as assistant to the president before entering the sales field. Before coming to Princeton, he was assistant to the general agent with the company's Newark agency.

TURNING POINTS AHEAD

For Tiger Quintet. The month of January holds two turning points for Princeton's basketball team, which began defense of its championship by losing to the team rated as its chief rival.

The first will come Friday night at New Haven, when the Tigers play a Yale quintet that has been considerably more successful to date than first seemed probable. The second will occur on January 27, following the fortnight's break for exams that begins this weekend. That's the night Princeton has its return game with Pennsylvania, to which it lost Saturday at the Palestra, 64 to 56.

Currently leading the 1962 pennant chase as a result of back-to-back victories over Brown, Yale has received a tremendous boost from three sophomores. Rick Kaminsky, Denny Lynch and Dave Schumacher rank with Captain Bill Madden as the top four point-producers on the team.

The Blue is 7-3 overall, won the Evansville (Tenn.) tournament during the holidays and figures to make a major bid for the Ivy title after a routine 1961 season. Topping the Elis on their home court will be a major task for a Princeton quintet that has had all sorts of trouble meshing its potential this season.

Kaemmerlen Will Be Ready. A minor concussion suffered by Captain Al Kaemmerlen early in the second half against Penn Saturday cost the Tigers whatever chance they had of trimming the Quakers at the Palestra. The 6-6 center fell hard while diving for the ball, struck his head and was carried off on a stretcher.

In the 25 minutes he had played, Kaemmerlen had 11 points and 13 rebounds. Trailing by six points (37-31) when he was injured, the Tigers cut the deficit to two (47-45) midway through the second half but could not provide the control of the backboards that Kaemmerlen had given them.

Pete Campbell, who had averaged better than 18 points against three good midwestern quintets, was held to eight at the Palestra, and the Tigers as a team shot a miserable 28 percent. That, plus Kaemmerlen's injury, lowered the boom.

Composed largely of players who have won two Ivy titles in a row, the team is not showing the drive essential to break away from the pack in a close race. If it does no better than split on the upcoming weekend trip to New Haven Friday and Providence the following night, the resultant 1-2 mark will make the post-exam portion of the race a rugged assignment.

SKATERS TO ITHACA

After Loss to Brown. Like the basketball team, the Tiger sextet has major problems as it seeks to break a four-game losing streak. Cornell, this weekend's opponent at Ithaca, has completed the long climb back after resuming the sport in the mid-fifties, and could record its first victory over the Tigers since 1911.

Indicative of Princeton's troubles was its 3-2 loss to a weak Brown sextet Saturday at Providence. The Bruins failed to win a single game in 20 last winter and have only five lettermen on their present squad, but managed to take a 3-2 decision in the game dedicating their new rink.

It was that dedication angle that told much of the story of the contest. Originally, Princeton was scheduled to go to Providence in early March but Brown asked to have the date switched so that the Tigers would be present help put the new rink into action officially.

Already scheduled to play Rennsselaer Polytech at Troy, N. Y., on Friday, Princeton agreed to accommodate the Bruins, adding a fourth game to its schedule in five days. Misfortune dogged the decision in the form of a tortuous bus trip across icy New England highways Friday night, and the weary Princetonians crawled into bed at 5:30 a.m. the day of the game.

Johnny Cook and Dave Hersey, the latter seeing his first action in a week following a shoulder injury, got the Tigers' two goals. Coach Norm Wood continued to shuffle his lines, skating Doug Davis with Cook and Jim Hyland on the first line in an effort to increase the goal production the team needs with a sub-par defense.

Earlier in the week, losses to Clarkson (8-0) and R. P. I. (4-2) were recorded on the trip to New York State. The defeats were marked by standout play in the goal credited to Billy Hill.

WEEKEND ACTION

Lehigh Wrestlers Here. One of the best college wrestling teams in the country will be in Dillon Gymnasium Saturday at 4. Almost invariably one of the top eastern entries in the sport, Lehigh this year holds a victory over Oklahoma, a national mat power, to its credit.

The Engineers may well win every match in their meet with the Tigers, whose fortunes in the sport are at an all-time low. Freshman and junior varsity meets will precede the main event at 2.

A good Navy swimming team will compete against Princeton in Dillon Pool at 4, with the midshipmen probably having too much depth for the improving Tigers. Navy's fencers round out the weekend program here—the meet is set for 2 o'clock in the gym.

There after, examinations take hold until the final weekend of the month. No events are scheduled here until the afternoon of Saturday, January 27.

PHS ROLLS ON

But Trouble Lies Ahead. A fast-breaking Princeton High School basketball team raced to its fourth straight win, and fifth in six games, Thursday when it posted an easy 84-48 victory over Franklin Township. It was the first time the two teams had met.

But PHS coach Tony Borzok warned it wasn't going to continue to be all beer and skittles for his Little Tigers. "The real competition is yet to come," he said. "We haven't met teams like Somerville, South River, B. M. I., Lawrenceville or Peddie yet. After we have, and after we have met opponents with some height, then you can judge whether we have a good team or not."

The Blue and White will collide with some of this stiffer competition Friday when it plays host to South River, its fourth consecutive home game. The contest will start at 3:30. In a scheduling vagary, South River will also be Princeton High's next opponent. The two

One reason New Jersey is such a great state is that it is continually growing. Its industry is growing. Its business is growing. Its population is growing. And to meet the demands of this growth trend Public Service must always be prepared for what the future might bring. That's why Public Service planning boards are always geared to the anticipated continued increase in demands for power.

With the responsibility of serving nearly 80% of New Jersey's population with electricity and gas, the past year saw Public Service invest more than $120 million to expand its facilities. Without trying to count the proverbial eggs, Public Service sees no reason why New Jersey's growth pattern should change in 1962.

schools will meet again the following Friday evening in South River.

Only in its third year of existence, Franklin Township was no match for the speedy Little Tigers. The home team took advantage of numerous Franklin mistakes to jump to a 19-9 edge at the end of the first period, after trailing 4-0 in the opening minutes of the contest.

PHS went on to outscore coach George Ackerman's five by a similar margin in the remaining 24 minutes to reach its season's high. The leading scorer for the Little Tigers, George Tucker again led the attack by dropping in 30 points.

He was followed by teammates Danny Brown with 19 and Hank Schmidt with 11. The winners hit on 48% of their shots and 16 of 21 foul shots. In contrast, Franklin connected only 17 of 51 shots and performed even more poorly from the foul line, sinking 14 of 34.

Team Play Cited. The reasons for Princeton High's early success? "We're working as a group," reported Borzok. "I'm getting good cooperation from all the boys. It's a nice feelig to know that the players you are using are the right ones and that you can take any one out of the lineup—it doesn't matter which one—put in another and nothing goes wrong."

"Hank Schmidt is jumping very well. Bensinger is coming into his own this year." Bensinger was out most of last season because of a foot injury.

"Danny Brown has a quick pair of hands and is helping us a lot." A big asset to the team not mentioned by Borzok is the 27.5 scoring average of Tucker.

Another factor contributing to the success of the team has been its speed. "I wouldn't say we use the fast break as much as I would say we take advantage of the other team's mistakes," observed Borzok. "Our fast break doesn't stem from under the basket so much as it does from harrassing the other team and forcing them to make mistakes. We can change from defense to offeose very quickly. The first mistake the other team makes, our boys are gone.

"Once you start winning, it gives the players confidence. They want to win again and everyone is willing to work a little harder. After you get those first couple of wins, it comes a little easier. Anybody can get on the gravy train. It's being able to get back on after you've been knocked off that counts."

West Point Falls to Princeton

Two Princetnn hockey teams invaded West Point, N.Y., Saturday, bagging a pair of victories without allowing the home forces a goal. Parent-operated motor convoys provided the transportation under the generalship of John Bernard and Dick Vaughan.

The Princeton Bantams trounced the West Point Bantams, 11 to 0. (Bantams are all under 14 as of August 1.) The Pee Wee All-Stars (under 12 as of August 1) also blanked their West Point counterparts, 1 to 0.

The Bantams started Rick Delano in the goal, Roy Coppedge and Charlie Samson on defense and a line consisting of Colie Donaldson, center, Ford Fraker and Ferd Wandelt on the wings. Donaldson and Fraker each got three goals; Wandelt, Coppedge, Guy Erdman and Rick Meredith one apiece.

The Pee Wees' starting lineup consisted of Pete Samson in the goal, Evan Donaldson and Hugh Samson on defense, Dave Sayen, center, Stuart Kirkpatrick and Paul Hagenbuhl, wings. Hagenbuhl got the game's only goal on an assist by Sayen.

The Princeton teams will play host to Westport, Conn., here on February 10. Early in March, they'll be on the road again — this time to Belmont Hill, Mass., and Exeter, N. H.

LARRIES AT B.M.I.

In Basketball Game. Lawrenceville's basketball team will travel to Bordentown Saturday for a game with Bordentown Military Academy. The team was scheduled to face Peddie School at home on Wednesday.

The hockey team will play two home games this weekend, the first on Friday at 3:30 against Burrillville, R. I., High School. On Saturday at the same hour, Lawrenceville will face Hope High School, also from Rhode Island.

The basketball team bowed to Farragut Academy last Saturday, 54-29, at Toms River. The loss was the second for the Red and Black in four outings.

The hockey team emerged from the Lawrenceville Invitation Tournament with one victory and two defeats, making its season record 2-3. A game with the Cranford Hockey Club scheduled for last Saturday was postponed by rain.

HUN HOME TWICE

As Team Resumes Play. After a lengthy holiday hiatus, the Hun School basketball team will swing back into action by entertaining two teams on its home court.

The Red and Black will meet Admiral Farragut Friday at 3:30 and Solebury, a Penn-Jersey Conference opponent, next Wednesday at 3. Both games will be played at the Princeton Seminary Gymnasium.

Coach Dan Barren's players are currently 1-1. They lost their opener to Pingry, a non-league team, and then bounced back two days later to conquer Bryn Athyn.

LABS WIDEN LEAD

In Basketball League. In defeating the YMCA quintet last Tuesday, 46 to 17, RCA Labs raised its record to 4-0 and became the only undefeated team in the YMCA Research and Industrial League

Educational Testing Service-Sannino A. C., and the YMCA RCA Astro, 2-2 and winless Food Machinery & Chemical and Institute for Defense Analyses comprised the second division.

The Labmen, last year's League champions, pulled away at the expense of the YMCA five. After both teams were deadlocked at the half, the Y succumbed to the scoring of the Lab's Ralph Simon and Joe Burns, who connected for 13 and 12 points repectively. Dick Lanahan was high for the losers with 8.

Al Meyers scored 18 points, high for the evening, to lead ETS to an easy 56-27 victory over winless FMC. Backing up Meyers were Joe Patnick and Tom Wallace, who combined for 27 more ETS points.

In the closest contest of the evening, IDA led RCA Astro 16-12 in baskets but lost the game on the foul line where it was outscored 16-2. The defeat was IDA's fourth in a row. Ray Yuhasz's 13-point performance was high for the winners.

HIGHTSTOWN FIVE BOWS

Before PHS Press. In beating the Hightstown Rams for the second time this year, on its home court Tuesday, the Princeton High School basketball team employed an all-court press from the beginning and never stopped running until it had outdistanced the Rams, 83 to 37. It was the Little Tiger's fifth straight win.

"The thing I like about this team," said coach Tony Borzok, "is that the boys are in shape. We haven't taken a time out in our last three games. The boys are really running this year and it has made a big difference."

Helping the home team roll up the score, was a 52% shooting average from the floor. Once again George Tucker led all Blue and White shooters with a 25-point performance.

He was followed by Danny Brown who connected for 19 and by Hank Schmidt and Charlie Pemberton who had 12 apiece. This performance was noted by Borzok who commented that having four players hit double figures "was a hallmark of a good team."

BOWLING NOTES

Princeton Inn Wins Half. Princeton Inn (72) coasted to an easy first-half win in the "A" League last week, finishing the mid-way point in the season six games ahead of Nini Motors, and seven ahead of Grover Lumber and Decker's Dairy. The Inn will meet the winners of the second half, which began this week, in the championship roll-off in May.

In other league action, Prince Laundro (66) held a slim two-point margin over Maul Electric and Edwards Engraving in the "B" loop, while the Crescents maintained an eleven-point lead over Tiger Garge and First National Bank, tied at 56 each, in the Industrial circuit. The King Pins (53) continued to top the ETS loop, moving seven points ahead of Research I and II, tied for second place. Six teams all won two games apiece as the Tri-County Fireman's loop opened the second half of its season.

Gale Cleaners (95) won the first half of the Womens Industrial League, nosing out Decker's Dairy by three points with Ideal (87) finishing third. Conover Motors (102) continued to pace the Women's circuit, with a nine-point margin over second-place Amron Homes. Doris Fasanella rolled the top score in the Women's loop with 196, followed by Sara Rose, 194, and Helen Tamasi, 190. High scores in the Women's Industrial League included Betty Frazee, 195; Rose Zinetti, 192; Peg Brown, 187; and Margaret Drummond, 180.

Bill Whatley paced the men with a 232 in the Firemen's loop. Other notable scores included Dick Anderson, 228; Mike Kopliner, 224; Ted Drake, 220; Norm Luck, 210; Joe Salek, 207; and Stan Tantum, 204, in the Firemen's League; Val Ranallo, 216; Bob King, 211; Ray Desimone, 210; and Bill Parke, 201, in the ETS loop; and Bill Dumble, 213-203; Gil Turner, 202; and Ken Robbins, 201, in the Industrial circuit.

Also, Sheldon Zabel, 216; Paul Kettler, 214; Ray Conover, 211; Bill Parke, 206; Bill Rathue, 202-202; Doug Latimer, 202, and Frank Maddalon, 200, in the "A" loop; and Vince Pirone, 212; Bill Pinelli, 210; Bill Dumble, 205; and Dick Edwards, 202, in the "B" League. In the Trentonian Tournament last week, the local doubles team of Frank Delneso and Al Hibbard were in first place with 14 points, after the completion of 15 of 45 games.

WILL HOLD HORSE SHOW

At Chestnut Ridge Club. The Chestnut Ridge Riding Club will hold its second monthly indoor junior horsemanship and schooling horse show Sunday in the club's riding hall on the Great Road.

The show will emphasize horsemanship with 9 of 21 classes devoted to skill both on the flat and over fences. Seventeen of the classes will be limited to junior riders. John Burns, club manager, has announced that Mrs. Robert R. Daly of Gladstone will rule on the events.

The morning session will start at 9. The public is invited and there is no admission charge.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT SET

To Aid Young Players. An indoor tennis tournament has been inaugurated by tennis fans in the Middle States area to raise money to further junior tennis development.

The tournament has been scheduled for the weekend of January 20-21 and will be held at the St. Joseph College Field House, 54th Street and City Line, Philadelphia. Featured in the matches will be such champions as Dick Savitt, Ron Holmberg, Jon Douglas, Mike Green, Vic Seixas and Straight Clark. Further information and tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Lewis Kraft at WA 4-4737.

ACTIVE WEEK ENDED

By Flying Fish. The Princeton YMCA Flying Fish Club completed a busy week of competition as the boys defeated the Morristown YMCA, the girls played host to a four-team invitational meet and three divers traveled to Philadelphia to compete in the seventh annual Philadelphia Diving Meet.

The boys' victory over Morristown, a narrow 94½ to 87½ margin, was not decided until the final event. This final event, the 15-17 year old medley, was ruled by the judges to be a dead heat, retaining Princeton's small edge. Members of the relay team include Dave Cook, Ronnie Jones, David Bernabie and John Dean.

The Flying Fish girls won the Invitational meet held at the Princeton Y on Avalon Place, scoring 90 points. The Passaic Y was runner up with 70 points, followed by Jersey City with 69 and West Essex Y with 21.

Over 100 divers participated in the diving meet, the biggest age group meet of the East. Princeton's Jacqui Linder placed second in the 15 and over event. Jennifer Clinton placed third in the 13-14 age group.

SMITH CLUB TO MEET

On January 12. The Smith College Club of Princeton will hold a luncheon meeting this Friday at 1 at the Nassau Inn. Mrs. C. Welles Fendrich, Jr., chairman will discuss plans for the club's annual auction, scheduled for Saturday, January 27, at Miss Fine's School Gym.

There will also be reports by other committee chairmen, including Mrs. John Stover, who is in charge of the Bermuda trip raffle. Mrs. Richard H. Sis luncheon chairman and Miss Betsy Moriarty, club president will preside.

PLANS ARE DISCUSSED

In West Windsor. The West Windsor Planning Board has approved plans for a 930-seat first-run movie theatre to be built by the Princeton Recreation Center next to the bowling alley now owned by the Center Eastern Management of New York will lease the theatre, which will open this spring or summer.

Approval is subject to elimination of a 20-foot-wide service road. Public hearing on the proposal will be held January 31 at 7:30 p.m. in the Township Hall, Dutch Neck.

The Planning Board has also forwarded to Township Committee its recommendation that William Roach, Township Planning Consultant, be authorized to prepare a Master Plan for submission to the Township in February, 1963.

Mr. Roach has informed the Board that he will make use of all previously assembled data in the preparation of his plan. This will include school maps, census reports, sewerage maps and so on. He will not submit a final plan because of the possibility of changes following a public hearing.

The consultant estimated that it would cost about $7,000 to prepare a master plan in this manner. The plan will include studies of land use, population, natural resources, economic resources, transportation, community services and facilities and special studies of such localized problems as migrant labor, University-owned land and state-owned land.

AUXILIARY TO INSTALL

New Officers. The Ladies Auxiliary of Engine Company 1 will install its newly-elected officers at its regular monthly meeting next Thursday evening at 8 at the Chestnut Street Firehouse.

The new officers are: Betty Davidson, president; Mary O'Hara, vice-president; Shirley Cashill, secretary; and Dorothy Servis, treasurer. Trustees are Bertha Foley, Rosemary Gilstorf and Mary Lou Nolf.

GUIDANCE IS TOPIC

Of PTA Speaker. Dr. Edgar Friendenberg of Brooklyn College will speak on "A New Look at Guidance" at the Tuesday meeting of the Princeton High School Parent-Teacher Association. The PTA will meet at 8 in the Social Room of the high school.

Dr. Friendenberg, Professor of Phychology and Education at Brooklyn College and a prominent consultant on counseling programs, will discuss the total purpose and the goals of guidance. A discussion period and refreshments will follow.

DOCTOR IS CANDIDATE

For Montgomery School Board. Dr. Frank W. Johnson of Cherry Hill Road is a candidate for the School Board in Montgomery Township.

The father of three children, Dr. Johnson, 37, has been engaged in the private practice of psychiatry and psychoanalysis for two years. He was formerly on the staff of the Carrier Clinic in Belle Mead.

FORSGATE EXPANDS

Clubhouse Doubled. A 36-hole golf course will be completed this year at Forsgate Country Club, Jamesburg, and a motel and swimming pool are planned for the immediate future. In addition, a development of "executive" homes will be created in conjunction with Forsgate Industrial Park Corporation.

J. Foster Abeel, president of the club since 1946, discussed these plans at a testimonial dinner, given for him this week at the club. Over 350 guests, including Governor-elect Richard J. Hughes, were present.

A resident of Cranbury since 1937, Mr. Abeel is a director of the First National Bank of Cranbury, the Peoples Trust Company, Hackensack, and Walker-Gordon Laboratories Company, Inc., Plainsboro. The Forsgate clubhouse has doubled in the last 15 years, and is designed to accommodate business meetings, wedding receptions and banquets.

Dear TRAVELEX,

"Now is the time to come to the aid of the party." Remember that old typing exercise? Some were taught to use, "Now is the time to come to the aid of the country." Perhaps that was used more during a time of higher need for patriotic enthusiasm. Today we have need for so many things which may lead us toward doing first things first and this is as it should be. However, do not fail to give a proper place to your plans to take a vacation or to plan to travel for educational enrichment.

"Now is the time to come to Travelex" might be our way of using this thought. Every day we see the benefits of planning ahead. Come in, survey the possibilities, decide when, where, and how. Then leave the details to Travelex.

You'll save wear and tear for sure! You may even save money by at least getting full value for what you pay.

Cordially,
Nancy

Obituaries

Mrs. Maude Vandervoorte Henderson, 85, mother of Dr. John Henderson of 1028 Princeton Pike, died January 2 in the Francis E. Parker Memorial Home, New Brunswick. A former resident of Hackensack, she was the widow of Henry Triebels Henderson, a well-known organist, and taught in the Hackensack and Paterson public schools for nearly 50 years.

Dr. Henderson is medical director of Johnson and Johnson, New Brunswick. He and two grandchildren survive. The funeral was held at the Second Reformed Church, Hackensack. Interment was private. In lieu of flowers, contributions are requested for the Francis E. Parker Memorial Home.

Frank Sansone, 80, of Route 518, Woodsville, died January 2 at the Hunterdon Medical Center after a brief illness. He had operated a farm in Woodsville for 47 years.

He is survived by six sons, Ralph of Brooklyn, N. Y., Neal and James, both of Hopewell, Zachary of Long Island, N. Y., Dr. John of Cornwells Heights, Pa.; two daughters, Mrs. Rose Lamendola of Pennington, and Miss Theresa Sansone of Hopewell; a sister, Mrs. Julia Moscarelli of Brooklyn, N. Y.; several grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Requiem high mass was celebrated at St. Alphonsus' Church, Hopewell.

Miss Grace M. Lee, aunt of Mrs. Sydney G. Stevens of 5 Springdale Road, died January 2 at the Foothills Nursing Home, Neshanic. A former resident of Washington, D. C., she was the sister of the late Mrs. Howard McClenahan of Princeton. She was born in Baltimore, Md.

Besides Mrs. Stevens, she is survived by a nephew, Richard L. McClenahan of Kenilworth, Ill. The Rev. Robert Spears Jr., rector of Trinity Church, officiated at the service, held at the Mather Funeral Home. Burial was in Oak Hill Cemetery, Washington.

George Rowley, 69, professor emeritus of Princeton University's art and archaeology department, died January 4 of pneumonia at Princeton Hospital. A resident of 91 Edgerstoune Road, he retired in 1960 after 35 years on the Princeton faculty.

An authority on Far Eastern art and Sienese Gothic painting, he received his B. A. degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1913. From that year until 1925 when he joined the Princeton faculty, he studied law, was a fellow in fine art at the University of Pennsylvania, a fellow in art and archaeology at Princeton, and an instructor in history of art at Bryn Mawr College, where he instituted a course in Chinese art.

Professor Rowley gained his M.F.A. degree from Princeton in 1926, and was promoted to associate professor in 1929 and full professor in 1948. During World War I, he served in the A.E.F. as an adjutant with the 88th Heavy Artillery Division.

In his studies of Italian Gothic art, he developed new methods for dates and attributions, based on tooling, architectural details and the use of microscopic examination. Chinese art scholars frequently visited him to study his unique method of analysis.

Among Professor Rowley's publications were "Principles of Chinese Painting," published in 1947 while he was a director of Princeton's bicentennial conference on China, and "Chinese Figure Style," based on his collection of dated Chinese rubbings. He gave a graduate course at Columbia University for 15 years and lectures at the Metropolitan Museum of Art for New York University for ten years.

Professor Rowley is survived by his wife and three step-children, Donald Mackie, Norman Mackie and Mrs. Patrick J. Kelleher, all of Princeton. The funeral was held at Trinity Church, with the Rev. Robert R. Spears Jr., rector, officiating. Interment will be in Rocky Hill Cemetery under the direction of the Mather Funeral Home.

William K. Hartman, 87, of 331 Lincoln Avenue, Hightstown, died January 6 at the Sunlawn Nursing Home. A former employee of the Hightstown Rug Company, he was an exempt member of Hightstown Engine Company No. 1, and had lived in Hightstown all his life.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Maude Hartman; and a step-daughter, Mrs. John H. Penfield of Upper Brookville, L. I. Dr. Jerre Moreland officiated at the funeral, held in Hightstown. Burial was in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

Oscar Hopkins, 84, died January 6 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Raymond Wiley of 445 Stockton Street, Hightstown, with whom he lived. Born in Hornerstown, he had lived in the Hightstown area most of his life. He was the husband of the late Mrs. Alice C. Hopkins, and was a conductor for the Union Transportation Railroad for 60 years prior to his retirement.

Besides Mrs. Wiley, he is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Thomas Foxhill of Medford Lakes; three sons, Fred of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and Leonard and Oscar Jr., both of Hightstown; four sisters; 14 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Dr. Jesse Moreland officiated at the funeral, held in Hightstown. Burial was in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

Winfield R. Johnson, 70, of 309 Morrison Avenue, Hightstown, died January 5 at the Sunlawn Nursing Home. A native of Cranbury, he had lived in the Hightstown area all his life. He was a veteran of World War I and was a rural mail carrier for 36 years before he retired.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Ella E. Johnson; a daughter, Mrs. Lester H. Terhune of Hightstown; a sister, Mrs. Elmer Pullen of White Horse; and two grandchildren. The funeral was held in Hightstown, with the Rev. David P. Muyskens of the Hightstown Presbyterian Church officiating. Interment was in Brainerd Cemetery.

Dr. Loren H. Odden, 56, of 30 Armour Road, died suddenly at his home January 8 of a heart attack.

Born in Osage, Iowa, he was a doctor of osteopathy, and had practiced in Princeton since 1935. He graduated from the University of Iowa in 1926, and received his degree in osteopathy from the University of Chicago in 1930.

He was a member of the Springdale Golf Club, and a former member of its board of governors. Surviving are his wife, Norine Dorsey; two sons, Lance R. of Watertown, Conn., and John H. of Princeton; and two sisters, Mrs. Clarence Tessman of Wheaton, Ill., and Mrs. Birchard Brush of Osage.

A memorial service will be held this Thursday at 3.15 in the Marquand Transcept of the Princeton University Chapel. Dean Ernest Gordon will officiate.

Interment will be at the convenience of the family under the direction of the Mather Funeral Home. It is requested no flowers be sent.

Walter Disbrow, 60, of Berrien Avenue, Princeton Junction, died January 9 in St. Vincents Hospital, New York City, after a brief illness. He was a conductor for the Pennsylvania Railroad, and was a member of Ashlar Lodge No. 75, F. & AM; Trenton Consistory, Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite; Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen; Toronto Black Watch, Princeton Junction Volunteer Fire Company, and the West Windsor Democratic Club.

Surviving are his wife, Frances Hunt; two sons, Walter of Princeton Junction, and Harold of Mercerville; three daughters, Mrs. Ruth Graser of Mercerville, Mrs. Dorothy Stevenson of Yardley, Pa., and Mrs. Marion Fullerton of Friendship; two sisters, Mrs. Florence Lettiere of Morrisville, Pa., and Mrs. Grace Colona of Trenton; ten grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren.

The service will be held Friday at 11 at the Swayze Funeral Home, 415 Greenwood Avenue, Trenton, with the Rev. William R. Nelson of the Clinton Avenue Baptist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery.

Junius Walker, 83, of 131 Liberty Street, Hightstown, died January 8 at his home following a long illness. A retired employee of Charles R. Field and Sons Lumber Yard, he was born in Virginia, and had lived in the Hightstown area for 62 years.

He is survived by his wife, Hattie Holmes; two sons, William H. of Hightstown, and Isiah of New York City; three daughters, Miss Mary Walker and Mrs. Jessie Chew, both of Hightstown, and Mrs. Leola Allen of Wilmington, Del.; ten grandchildren, and 20 great-grandchildren.

The Rev. J. D. Bedford will officiate at the funeral, to be held this Thursday at 2 at the Count Olivet Baptist Church, Hightstown. Burial will be in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

SECLUSION PLUS CONVENIENCE

It's rare to find such country atmosphere (peace, quiet, trees, at the end of a permanent cul-de-sac) so conveniently located (a few minutes from the busline or, possibly, walkable to town.) It's a good house, too, basically well planned and enhanced by attractive touches; dropped living room, raised hearth, flagstone, brick, etc. 3 bedrooms, or 2 plus study, with 2 baths make it a perfect house for a couple who like seclusion but not isolation. Asking $46,500.

EXCLUSIVE LISTINGS:

Small stone house with large appeal. Charm galore, lovely grounds. 3 bdrms. Offer on $32,500.
PRE-REVOLUTIONARY CHARMER, EDGE OF BOROUGH. 2 bdrms, den, large kitchen. Original touches. $29,500
PRINCETON PALAZZO! Impressive yet compact, fascinating throughout. Potential garage apt. 1 walled acre. Western Borough.

TWO LINE TEASERS:

OUTSTANDING SMALL ESTATE, Princeton's most lovely grounds. Delightful stone house, West End. $140,000
CENTER TOWN, TWO HOUSES, 5 nr 6 bdrms. One older, one newish, choice is a matter of taste. Each $36,000
RENTALS AVAILABLE, RESIDENTIAL AND BUSINESS. Varying sizes, prices.
